Pursuant to article 13 of RJEC, the tender selection panel is be formed by: Isabel Maria Pinto Leite Viegas Oliveira Ferreira (Associate Professor with Habilitation, Faculty of Pharmacy, University of Porto, chair of the jury by delegation of the Director of REQUIMTE), Victor Freitas (Full Professor, Faculty of Sciences, University of Porto) and Manuel António Coimbra (Full Professor, University of Aveiro).

4. The workplace shall be at Faculty of Pharmacy, University of Porto.

5. The gross monthly salary entitle is the corresponding to 220 index of the Scientific Research Career (Anexo I do Decreto-Lei nº 124/99, de 20 de Abril).

6. Application can be submitted by any national, foreign and stateless candidate(s) holding a doctorate degree in Nutrition and Food Chemistry and related areas, with five years or more relevant post-doctoral experience.

In case the doctorate degree was awarded by a foreign higher education institution, it must comply with the provisions of Decreto-Lei n.º 66/2018, de 16 de Agosto, and all formalities established therein must be complied with at the signature of work contract.

7. The tender admission general requirements are those defined in the previous point 6, and specific requirements are:

- a) Publications in the fields of Food Science, Food Chemistry, Food Allergy and related areas that totalize more than 75 articles in indexed international journals;
- b) Proven experience, through scientific publications, in molecular biology methods for food analysis applied to the assessment of authenticity, detection of allergens and detection of genetically modified organisms, including different food and biological matrices;
- c) Proven experience, through scientific publications, in chromatographic methods for the analysis and characterization of foods;
- d) Supervision/co-supervision of at least 5 doctoral students;

e) Principal investigator of at least one national or international scientific project.

8. Pursuant to article 5 of RJEC, the selection is to be made based on the evaluation of the scientific and curricular career of the candidate.

9. Scientific and curricular career evaluation focuses on relevance, quality and up-to-datedness:

a) of scientific or technological production, considered most relevant by the candidate in the past 5 years;

b) of research activities, fundamental or applied science, considered of higher impact by the candidate in the past 5 years;

c) of knowledge extension and dissemination activities, namely under the scope of the promotion of culture and scientific practices, deemed most relevant by the candidate;

d) of activities of entrepreneurship and technology transfer;

e) of activities of elaboration of applications for R&TD projects funding.

10. Evaluation criteria are the following:

10.1 Integrated assessment of the curriculum trajectory of the candidate, based on an overview of their scientific merits, namely:

I. Overall scientific coherence of the CV – 15%;

II. Diversity and quality of scientific indicators, including relevant published peer-reviewed articles in the specific areas indicated in points 1 and 7 or demonstrating relevant technical expertise – 20%;

III. Participation and/or coordination on research projects in the areas of food quality and safety, and food allergy – 15%.

10.2 Relevant experience, proved in CV, in:

I. Detection and quantification of food allergens in complex matrices – 10%;

II. Evaluation of food authenticity – 10%;

III. Developments of molecular biology techniques applied to food analysis (DNA extraction from processed foods, PCR, real-time PCR, HRM analysis, digital PCR and sequencing) – 10%;

IV. Characterization of food allergens by immunochemical techniques (SDS-PAGE, immunoblotting, ELSA) – 10%;

V. Analysis and characterization of foods by gas and liquid chromatographic techniques – 10%.

Only candidates who obtain a classification equal to or greater than 50% in the parameters indicated above will be eligible.

11. In the case of admitted candidates whose evaluation does not differ more than 10% from that obtained by the best positioned candidate, the jury will interview these candidates. The objective of the interview is to obtain clarifications and additional information about the curricular elements, as well as to evaluate the candidate's profile, attitude and motivation.

The final score of each jury member is obtained by the following assessment: 90% scientific and curricular career evaluation and 10% interview.

12. Candidate final classification system shall be given based on a scale 0 to 100.

13. The panel shall deliberate by means of roll-call vote justified under adopted and disclosed selection criteria, with no abstentions allowed.

14. Minutes of the jury meetings will be drawn up, which contain a summary of what occurred during them, as well as the votes cast by each jury member and their respective reasons, being provided to candidates whenever requested.
